

Life is not about waiting for the storm to pass. It's about learning to dance in the rain.

Ignore the little things that tend to irritate you.

Stay focused and never give up.

Take all the time you need to rest and recharge.
That's the only way you have more to give!

A well-groomed appearance says a lot about one's character.

AFTER 1 MONTH
I'M STILL THIN

What matters most is how you see yourself.
